About Town

And Country

By TIMOTHEUS T.

WE GET A LOT of things thru the mail and I imagine 15 or 16 pounds of the stuff makes the waste basket each day; but a bulletin from Conservation Militant, Box 72, St. Paul 2, Minnesota, might prove a benefit to hay fever sufferers around here—as well as to the birds.

The birds of which we speak are the mourning doves and a doctor said their protection is one of the best remedies for hay fever.

Wanna hear what Paul H. Fluck, M. D., of Lambertville, N. J., has to say about it?

"Any bird," he says, "who can eat ten thousand weed and grass seeds daily is a boon to hay fever sufferers and asthmatics."

Re-Elect Four Members of Board At SEIEC Meeting at Eldorado

The 17th annual meeting of the Southeastern Illinois Electric Co-op entered its third and final session this afternoon, with the annual beauty contest scheduled to close the meeting.

At this morning's business session four members of the Board of Directors were elected and reports of the co-op were given.

The annual affair, held at the SEIEC headquarters on Highway 142 near Eldorado, got underway Monday evening with approximately 3,000 in attendance.

There was a full evening's program, with the talent contest attracting top billing.

Miss Marietta Allen, who gave her age as "6 years, 11 months and 20 days," took first place honors and will represent the SEIEC at the state meeting to be held in Springfield early in September.

There were ten contestants in the talent contest and each and every one staged an act that was a crowd pleaser, but judging from the cheering, Marietta was not only the judges' choice, but also the audience's, for first place. The little girl, a student at Lakeview school, recites and sings.

Tommy Craggs of Eldorado, who plays the electric organ, won second place and Candace Malone of Carrier Mills, pianist, won third place honors.

This morning four members of the board of directors were re-elected for three year terms. They are—W. L. Bradley, Gallatin county; W. E. Hunt, Hamilton county; George Aydelott, Saline county; Ray Webb, Johnson county.

Other members of the board of directors—Gilbert Galloway, Franklin county; Loyd Pickard, Franklin county; J. D. Clemens, Pope county; Hosea Barlow, Gallatin county; Clarence Sutton, Saline county; Thurman White, Williamson county and Escol Oxford, Hardin county.

The morning session opened with registration and organ music. At 10 a. m. the business meeting got underway with the address of welcome by President Escol Oxford and the invocation by Rev. Eddie Hatfield.

The SEIEC grounds have a carnival appearance, with concession stands and displays located over the grounds. There also are pony rides and a merry-go-round for the kiddies and last night there were outdoor movies.

The Shawnee Hills Recreation Ass'n gains impetus, meeting shows contribution down to the $262,000 figure from the $300,000 recommended by the Corps of Engineers.

Jones, Kerr among Speakers

But, Gray added, he planned to renew the fight for the project at the next session of congress.

The meeting was held at the Masonic temple at Goreville, presided over by George M. Scherrer of Shawneetown, president of the association and speakers included State Senator Glen O. Jones of Raleigh, State Rep. Gordon Kerr of Brookport, L. D. Putnam of the Fish and Wildlife Service of the state department of conservation; Rex Karnes of Southern Illinois University, who is the university's representative with the Shawnee Hills project; Dr. William Tudor, assistant director of area services.

Promises Tax Cuts for Low, Middle Incomes

Delegates Set to Whoop It Through Unanimously

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Republican policy makers today gave President Eisenhower a "peace and prosperity" campaign platform pledging the party to work for tax reductions.

The 1956 platform set a goal of cutting taxes "with particular consideration" for low and middle income families and small business.

But the platform supported Mr. Eisenhower's program of putting first a balanced budget and gradual reduction of the national debt.

The Democratic convention in Chicago last week promised a $5,000,000,000 tax reduction by increasing the personal income tax exemption from $600 to $800.

The 1,323 delegates at the GOP convention were set to unanimously whoop through their 13,500-word platform, which was fashioned on the "new party" domestic and foreign policies developed by the Eisenhower administration in the last four years.

It promised peace, prosperity and equal rights for all Americans.

New Wealth, New Jobs

A toned-down civil rights plank pledged the GOP to carry out the Supreme Court school integration decision "in every legal manner by all branches of the federal government."

The GOP platform supported a sound money and free enterprise economic policy "ever building new wealth and new jobs for all the people."

A balanced budget, the platform said, is necessary "to assure the financial strength of the country which is so vital to the struggle of the free world in its battle against communism." It also is essential "to maintain the purchasing power of a sound dollar, and the value of savings, pensions and insurance," the document added.

The platform assured maintenance and improvement of strong military forces "so long as our

Gov. Goodwin Knight Throws Lavish $120,000 Party for Convention Guests

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California Gov. Goodwin J. Knight became the host with the mostest Monday night.

He tossed politics' biggest party—a fabulous $120,000 affair featuring champagne, movie stars and nearly 10,000 awe-struck Republican convention guests.

The white-haired governor, known as "Goodie" in his home state, outdid both in size and lavishness the Democratic convention soiree given by Perle Mesta, known as the hostess with the mostest. Mrs. Mesta had a mere 600 guests at her supper dance in Chicago last week.

Convention delegates, party bigwigs, governors, Cabinet members, mayors and many Hollywood celebrities—in black tie with their wives showing off beautiful evening gowns—arrived in limousines.

Each guest was handed a flower from tables loaded with 15,000 carnations and baby orchids. The next stop—after a walk of half a block—was the food served on four buffet tables. Guests lined up for crab newburg (4,200 crabs gave their all for the Republicans), tossed green salad (35 crates of lettuce and 200 quarts of french dressing), French pastries, finger sandwiches and coffee.

Three hundred cases of magnums of California champagne were on hand. But not all saw the light of the 15,000 champagne glasses. The bar closed on the stroke of 10 on orders from the governor who wanted his guests to concentrate on the floor show.

The receiving line was so long most of the guests never met the host. The line made strange bedfellows—Richard Nixon, Gov. Christian Herter, Governor Knight, Even Nixon and Harold Stassen beamed at each other.

The September term of court will begin following the empanelling of the grand jury, with Judge C. Ross Reynolds of Vienna presiding.

Pleadings and two non jury cases, Doris Hudes vs. Irving I. Hudes, and Winnie Collins vs. Ben Newton Jr. are scheduled for that day.

The remainder of the docket will be jury cases, as follows:

Tuesday, Sept. 11: Elmo Murgage vs. Smith Packing Co.; Ethel Long vs. Carl Everett Tucker; Burlie Griffin vs. John Stelle Associates; Marion Dunning vs. Vernon Dale Boatright.

Wednesday, Sept. 12: Kenneth Irvin vs. Gus Brown et al; Nellie Busler vs. Independent Oil Well Cementing Co. and George Zanders Jr.

Thursday, Sept. 13: Maxine Pickett, Adm., vs. C. Mart Watson et al; Clint Hill et al vs. Ronald Stroke; C. E. Weldon et al vs. Ellis I. Frencher.

Monday, Sept. 17: Dorothy M. Wiese vs. Peoria and Rockford Bus Co.; Phillip Cain vs. New York Central Railroad; Effie Clark vs. A. O. Steinborn.

Death Takes Rev. Allen E. Miller, 35

The Rev. Allen E. Miller, 35, died today at the Deaconess hospital in Evansville, Ind., following a long illness. He was a native of Carrier Mills and will be remembered best as a former missionary of the Saline Baptist association.

The body will be taken to Anna Wednesday afternoon to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Miller, 200 Lincoln avenue.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Walnut Street Baptist church in Carbondale with the Rev. L. H. Moore and the church pastor, Rev. Chery, in charge. The body will lie in state at the church one hour prior to the funeral.

Rev. Miller also leaves his wife, Jerri, and two children, Debbie and Danny.

Automobiles driven by Amos Doom, Harrisburg, and George Thornhill, 32, Peoria, collided at 5 p. m. yesterday at Main and Gaskins. Police said that Doom was travelling on Main and that the crash occurred when Thornhill pulled off Gaskins street onto Main. Both cars were damaged extensively.

Ike Reported At Physical Peak For Campaign

Chairman Martin Opens Day's Attacks On Democrats

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Republicans turned today to their favorite sports— lambasting Democrats. Delegates to the GOP's 1956 national convention still must go thru the routine of adopting their campaign platform today and renominating President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon Wednesday.

But they had made up their minds in advance to do both with little if any fuss. So there was nothing much left to think about except attacking Democrats and revving up a jubilant reception for "Ike."

Mr. Eisenhower is due here between 7 and 7:30 p. m. CST. Only he could pump life into the corpse of Harold E. Stassen's drive to dump Nixon and his aides say he won't.

A few hours before Mr. Eisenhower's arrival a high administration figure told the United Press that the chief executive had returned to a physical peak which would permit him to undertake a fully active re-election campaign.

"We are happy to know that there is no physical excuse for Mr. Eisenhower not doing in a campaign what he would have done prior to his September, 1955, heart attack. The only limitation on his campaign activity will be a matter of taste and preserving the dignity of the presidency," the official said. Plug for GOP Congress

It was Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr., veteran House Republican leader, who kicked off the day's kick Democrats activities.

Martin will take his fifth tour of duty as permanent chairman of a Republican National Convention after today's session gets under way at 4:30 p. m. CST. His speech for that occasion was released hours before.

In it he supplied the delegates with the raw meat they have had to do without so far at this convention. He said surely not many would "want to return this nation to the leadership of the past that despoiled our heritage with the indelible stain of corruption and communism."

That was a departure from mood of Monday's keynote speech by Gov. Arthur B. Langlie of Washington. Langlie said "our party's purpose is not to 'give 'em hell' but to give them leadership."

Martin gave 'em hell anyway. Martin also touched on a matter that is getting more and more attention here. The Republicans think they can put over their "The and Dick" ticket in November with not too much trouble.

But they have had to live since 1954 with the galling fact that the House and Senate are controlled by Democrats. Martin summoned his party to prodigies of toil to give the President a Republican Congress.

That must be done, he said, "to eliminate the political opposition that has prevented the drama of Republican progress from being played to the fullest."

White House aides said Mr. Eisenhower is coming here determined to maintain a hands-off stand on selection of his running mate. That would insure renomination of Nixon.

Gives Low-Keyed Speech

In a deliberately low-keyed keynote speech Monday night, Gov. Arthur B. Langlie of Washington called the Democrats a coalition of conflicting viewpoints held together by a "common desire for political power." He said the opposition party controlled the national administration for 20 years of "discord and defeatism," ending in "flagrant corruption."

Langlie's quiet, unemotional delivery obviously was intended to contrast with the ripsnoring performance given a week ago by

Midwest GOP Leaders Praise Farm Plank as Sound Approach

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Midwest Republican leaders today praised the farm plank of the GOP platform as the only "sure, sound approach" to solution of U. S. agriculture problems.

Delegates predicted that farmers back home would go along with the restatement of the Eisenhower administration's flexible price support program as opposed to high, rigid props promised by the Democrats.

And the soil bank plan was hailed by Ohio delegate Roger Cloud as the "sure, sound approach for the government to help the farmer."

Cloud, speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives, said: "I'm sure the Ohio farmer will find completely defensible the expenditure of funds to make the soil more fertile rather than for higher production of farm goods that are already a drug on the market."

Sen. Karl Mundt also had cheers for the soil bank program. He said that four months ago he might have been worried about farm state defections from the GOP this fall.

"But since the soil bank went into effect the majority of the farmers are happy," he said.

Mrs. George P. Abel, chairman of the Nebraska delegation, said the farm plank appeared to "reflect what we've been supporting all along and it's likely to get our complete support."

"I think the Nebraska farmers will give the Eisenhower farm program a full trial because it has been in effect such a short time," she said.

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Pursuant to law in such case made and provided, public notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to the Illinois Constitution will be submitted on a separate blue ballot to the electors of the State of Illinois for adoption or rejection at the General Election to be held on November 6, 1956.

REVENUE AMENDMENT Article IX

Sec. 1. The General Assembly may define and classify property for taxation, but all such definitions and classifications shall be reasonable and be based solely on the nature and characteristics of the property and not on the nature, characteristics, residence or business of the owner or the amount or number owned. All real estate shall constitute one class, except that lands used for forestry purposes and mineral rights in land may be classified separately. If any class of property is taxed by valuation, such tax shall be uniform as to the class.

Sec. 2. The General Assembly may levy or authorize the levy of such other kinds of taxes as it may deem necessary, which shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, but shall not levy or authorize the levy of a graduated income tax.

Sec. 3. The property of the State, counties and other municipal corporations, both real and personal, and such other property, or part thereof, as may be owned by, or held in trust for, agricultural or horticultural societies, non profit hospitals or schools, religious institutions, cemeteries, or charitable institutions and used exclusively for one or more of such purposes, may be exempted from taxation; but such exemption shall be only by general law. In the assessment of real estate incumbered by public easement, any depreciation occasioned by such easement may be deducted in the valuation of such property. This section shall not deprive the General Assembly of power to classify property for taxation as provided in section 1 of this Article.

Sec. 9. The General Assembly may vest the corporate authorities of cities, towns and villages with power to make local improvements by special assessment, or by special taxation on contiguous property, or otherwise. For all other corporate purposes, all municipal corporations may be vested with authority to levy and collect taxes subject to the restrictions of sections 1 and 2 of this Article.

Sec. 10. The General Assembly shall not impose taxes upon municipal corporations, or the inhabitants or property thereof, for corporate purposes, but shall require the corporate authorities to levy taxes for the payment of liabilities incurred under authority of law. Private property shall not be liable to be taken or sold for the payment of the corporate liabilities of a municipal corporation.

Section 13 of Article 9 of this Constitution is repealed.

Form of Ballot

The proposed amendment to Article IX will appear upon the constitution ballot in the following form:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTIONS 1, 2, 3, 9, and 10 of
ARTICLE IX AND FOR THE REPEAL OF SECTION 13 OF

ARTICLE IX

(Revenue Amendment)

Explanation of Amendment
This amendment would revise Section 1 of Article IX of the State Constitution so as to permit the General Assembly to classify property for tax purposes, subject to the following restrictions: (1) the classifications are to be based on the nature and characteristics of the property and not on the nature, characteristics, residence or business of the owner or the amount or number owned; (2) all real estate is to constitute one class, except that lands used for forestry purposes and mineral rights in land may each be classified separately; and (3) if any class of property is taxed by valuation, such tax is to be uniform as to the class.

This amendment would also revise and simplify Section 2 of Article IX, dealing with the levy of miscellaneous types of taxes, but would require such taxes to be uniform as to the same class of subjects within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax. The levy of a graduated income tax would be forbidden.

Other changes are merely routine. This amendment revises Section 3 to require ownership or its equivalent—and not mere use—as a basis for exemption of charitable, religious, and other similar property from taxation. In addition, non-profit hospitals would be added to the list of institutions and purposes for which the General Assembly may grant tax exemption by general law.

Sections 9 and 10 would be revised to subject the taxing powers of cities and other local governments to the same restrictions as apply to the General Assembly. The language in regard to obligations of these governments would be broadened, requiring them to levy taxes not merely—as now—for "debts contracted" but rather for "liabilities incurred."

This amendment would, in addition, repeal obsolete Section 13, which was adopted in 1890 to authorize the corporate authorities of Chicago to issue Columbia Exposition bonds.

	YES	NO
For the proposed amendment to Sections 1, 2, 3, 9, and 10 of Article IX of the Constitution and for the repeal of Section 13 of the Constitution (Revenue Amendment).

Gentry turned from the desk as the house detective came wheeling around the corner toward them. He said, "Evening, Ollie," shaking hands briefly. "You know Shayne and Tim Rourke, don't you?"

"Sure," Patton nodded at the reporter and detective. "Tried to call you a short time ago, Mike. You know, you asked me to keep in touch if anything more came up on the Paulsons?"

"Yeh. What?"
"Her brother was in here asking for her. Big guy with a scar on his face. Just drove in from Jacksonville, he claimed, and she was supposed to be expecting him and he wanted to wait up in her room for her. Funny thing was, he decided he didn't want to wait when I offered to go up and sit it out with him. In fact, he said a funny excuse to beat it—saying he'd be back."

Gentry said, "Interesting. Let's go up and have a look at this room where you keep your bodies hidden, Ollie."

As they went to the elevator in a solid group, Patton said forlornly, "Hope you don't think I was negligent about not reporting all this crazy stuff, chief. As a matter of fact, we're not even sure which room the body was supposed to be in. And then when there wasn't any body at all—"

Shayne said flatly, "It was 316, Oliver. Miss Paulson explained to me about the mix-up in room numbers. After seeing her brother's body in 316, she rushed out to find another phone to report it on. Three-sixty was conveniently open and she used the phone in there. When she got back a few minutes later, the body had disappeared."

"Her brother's body?" Patton asked in puzzlement as they went up. "But I've just been telling you he was here looking for her."

"Not her brother," Gentry said. "We got a description of him from Jax."

"He had plenty of identification," Patton protested. "I made him show it when he wanted in to her room."

The elevator stopped and they got out. Shayne said, "Yeh. He showed me his identification, too." As Patton led the way down the dim-lit corridor, he said thoughtfully, "Maybe that begins to add up then. Though the guy said he just got in from Jacksonville, the elevator boy swears he's been around before. Either earlier in the evening or the last day or so." "Yeh, it adds up," Shayne agreed. "He was here about 9:30. Just when the body was doing its disappearing act."

PATTON had stopped in front of 316 and he knocked perfunctorily before fitting a key in the lock. He opened the door and reached inside to turn on the overhead light, then stepped back. "There it is," he muttered defensively. "See if you can find a body."

The three entered and stood staring at the smoothly made-up bed standing directly beneath two closed windows. The only way to reach the windows to open or close them was to get on the bed or move it from the wall. Gentry went to the rear and told Shayne Take the front and let's move it out. None of you touch the bed. These windows closed when you looked in before Ollie?"

"Yes, I remember noticing because it was hot. Most guests keep them open all the time." Gentry grunted as he and Shayne moved the bed two feet nearer the center of the room. He and Shayne circled the bed and stood studying the windows. Through the panes, they could see the riding lights of half-dozen yachts in the Municipal Basin not far distant. They were ordinary sash windows that could be raised or lowered, and they weren't latched. There were outside screens with hooks and yes to hold them shut. Both screens were hooked now, but without closer examination it would be impossible to know whether either had been unhooked recently or not.

Looking downward as directly as they could without opening the windows, they could see tiny white-caps rolling in from the bay, and could hear them breaking lightly on the stone wall directly below.

GENTRY stepped back with a shrug, saying, "I want this room kept locked, Ollie, until my boys go over it. Did you touch anything at all when you were first up here? Smooth the bed or anything?"

"Nothing Will. I just looked in the bathroom and closet and peeked under the bed to make sure there weren't any corpses."

"Water directly below these windows?" pursued Gentry. "No strip of sand to catch a body if it were shoved out?"

"Only at low tide. There's about 10 feet of sand then. It was high tide about nine tonight. Going down now." Will Gentry nodded, moving toward the open door. "About all we can do here. Lock the door, Ollie. I'll send a man up to guard it until the Identification Squad gets here. And for your information, there's an All Cars out on both Nellie Paulson and the lad with the scar who's carrying her brother's wallet around with him. I'll put a couple of men downstairs in case either of them show."

As the college man has a well-deserved reputation for being a pace-setter in men's fashions, it's a sure-fire bet that Joe College's "what to take back to school" list will be heavy on clothing.

His list will of course include a couple of Ivy League suits in light tone medium weight worsted or flannel, but the main emphasis will fall on sports clothes and new items of outerwear.

The trend toward lighter and brighter colors, which gained big momentum throughout spring and summer, is carrying over into the fall and winter seasons. Charcoals are well on the way out to make room for the newly favored shades of Cambridge and banker's gray, tan, olive gray, green and blue.

Two of the most important colors, especially in sport jackets and outerwear, will be brown and blue. Combinations of both shades in lightweight herringbone tweed designs, plaids, checks and stripes promise to hold the spotlight as a major fashion innovation during the cold weather months.

It is important to note that while the college man's wardrobe will feature a predominance of sportswear, his fall 1956 sportswear has none of its old "sloppy" appearance. Instead, the over-casual look has been replaced by a stylish, tailored feeling, despite its dressed-up appearance, still gives a maximum of comfort.

Early Greeks used various kinds of shoe decorations to show the rank or wealth of the wearer.

ASSESSMENT LIST

Herewith is a list of personal property assessments as made by the township assessor of Tate township and returned to MAYNARD CANNON, County Treasurer and Supervisor of Assessments of Saline County, Illinois.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Saline County Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under Provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as amended in 1945, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship within each county of assessed value and the estimated full, fair cash value. Upon the basis of such data, the Department is required to raise or lower the total locally assessed values so that all such property will be assessed at its full, fair cash value.

These equalized values then become the base for tax extension for 1956 taxes, payable in 1957, and indicate the full, fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed values as made by the local assessment official.

This publication, which is made in accordance with section 103 of the Revenue Act, serves as public notice to the taxpayers of the County of assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors.

Stevenson Hits 'Smugness' in GOP Keynote

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson charged today that the keynote speech delivered by Washington's Gov. Arthur B. Langlie at the Republican convention in San Francisco Monday was "another example of the administration's smug, self-righteous complacency."

"I have no expectation of an honest appraisal of the dangers abroad and the failures at home from any official Republican spokesman, at least before the election," the Democratic presidential candidate said in a statement at his country home.

"The Republican 'keynote' was that 'all is well and God is on our side,'" Stevenson said. "It was another example of the administration's smug, self-righteous complacency."

Langlie's keynote speech stressed peace and prosperity and called for four more years of a Republican "crusade for a finer America in a better world under the competent, steadfast forthright leadership of Dwight D. Eisenhower."

Stevenson said that the keynote address was not "the first time Governor Langlie has shamelessly confused fact and falsehood for political ends."

"In 1950," Stevenson said, "he said I had run up a large deficit in Illinois. The fact is that I left the state with a large treasury balance after doubling school aid and other programs and without raising general revenue taxes."

Stevenson's blast at Langlie was his first attack on the Republicans since he began a rest Monday at his country home.

12.3 Million Acres In Soil Bank

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department reported Monday more than 12,300,000 acres were taken out of production this year under the administration's new soil bank program.

Growers of corn, cotton, wheat, rice, peanuts and tobacco who agreed to withdraw some of their land from production will receive almost 261 million dollars from the government for cutting down their usual acreage.

State committees reported that 541,018 farms were covered by the 555,098 soil bank agreements. A number of farmers signed agreements on more than one crop.

The purpose of the program is to cut down surpluses of the nation's basic crops. After a final check on compliance, the figures may be adjusted somewhat, the department said.

The government's original goal was a 1956 soil bank of from 8 million to 15 million acres.

Corn farmers signed the most agreements—270,161—covering 5,450,194 acres on which they could earn a maximum of $180,629,284.

Wheat farmers signed 162,574 agreements covering 5,654,507 acres, for a possible $44,490,882.

WHILE WE'RE ON the subject of weeds and grasses, let us continue. One time I read a book called The Great Snow, and naturally it told about a great snow.

Now I'm just about ready to write a dissertation about The Great Mow.

Did you ever mow so much in the past as this year? To me, it's been just one great mow. Seems like the rains have come along just right to keep the grass growing upward and thicker each day. It's fine for the crops and we'll take the mowing in stride as long as we know the rain is proving beneficial. But I'll be yearning for that day after Jack Frost does a good job when I can say "There ain't no mow."

Officials at Menard State Prison revealed the first day's menu for Hodge.

Breakfast consisted of doughnuts, dry cereal with milk and sugar, chilled prunes, bread, coffee and water.

Lunch was to be smoked jowl with potatoes, gravy, soup, lima beans and water.

Supper was to be liver and onions, corn on the cob, potatoes, gravy and coconut pudding.

Spinster Princess Margaret Quietly Observes 26th Birthday

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret, spinster sister of Queen Elizabeth, turned 26 today with no new royal romances on the horizon or even remotely rumored.

She celebrated her birthday quietly at Balmoral Castle in Scotland. Queen Elizabeth and other members of the royal family planned to attend a dinner in her honor.

As customary on royal birthdays, an official portrait was published to mark the event. It showed a pensive, unsmiling princess.

Several newspapers expressed concern. The Daily Sketch noted that "her face seems sad, her eyes have a far-away look."

West Obtains Clear Majority For Dulles Plan

LONDON (AP)—The West obtained a clear majority today for the American-sponsored plan to internationalize the Suez Canal.

In swift succession, Sweden, Italy, Australia, New Zealand, Norway and Denmark announced their support for the plan before the 22-nation Suez conference. They were joined by Pakistan, Iran, Ethiopia and Turkey, whose minor amendments were quickly accepted by U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Those 10 nations, along with the United States, Britain and France, assured the American plan of majority backing.

But Russia and India already have made clear their hostility.

Radio Moscow blasted the plan outlined by Dulles Monday as a "violation of the sovereign rights of Egypt."

V. K. Krishna Menon of India told a news conference there is no hope of the plan's unanimous acceptance by the conference or its approval by India.

"The Dulles proposal has put us right back where we started—with all the consequences," Menon said.

Declaring, "Don't scuttle our first air force," Dr. Fluck points out that there are at least 17 million Americans who suffer from the allergy. There are quite a number in this area, too.

security and the peace of the world require it." It said the nation now has "the strongest striking force in the world—in the air—in the sea—and a magnificent supporting land force."

But the document also promised to "strive for acceptance of realistic proposals for disarmament and the humanitarian control of weapons of mass destruction."

It pledged aid to small business and continuation of Mr. Eisenhower's "partnership" program for hydroelectric projects.

Assure Security Program
It promised "unwavering vigilance against corruption and waste . . . to warrant our people's full confidence in the integrity of their government."

The platform assured a federal employee security program "to make certain" that all government workers "are of unquestioned loyalty and trustworthiness." But federal employees were promised the program would be carried out "in conformity with constitutional safeguards for the individual."

Support was pledged to Mr. Eisenhower's proposal to increase postal rates. Congress rejected it this year.

Farmers were promised that the GOP would work for full parity prices for agricultural commodities in the markets. Mr. Eisenhower's flexible price support program was supported as the best means "to meet effectively the impact of rapidly changing conditions."

The platform pledged the party to "continuous, vigorous development" of atomic energy for both military and peaceful purposes. It promised to "stimulate private enterprise to go ahead" in the development of atomic power plants.

On veterans affairs, the platform promised "first priority" medical service for veterans with service-connected disabilities, and treatment of those with non-service connected ailments "to the extent that beds are available."

Veterans Pension Plan
The veterans plank also pledged a pension program for disabled veterans and their widows or orphans when they are "in need," to be maintained "as long as necessary."

The platform again endorsed immediate statehood for Hawaii. It also called for immediate statehood for Alaska but added that recognition should be given to "the fact that adequate provision for defense requirements must be made."

The only dispute on the platform was ironed out in advance when GOP policy makers agreed Monday on a softened civil rights plank.

Mantle Guns
For Homer No. 43

NEW YORK (AP)—Mickey Mantle, hoping to shake his home run slump, goes gunning for No. 43 against southpaw Herb Score of the Cleveland Indians tonight.

Mantle, who still is seven games ahead of Babe Ruth's record pace, has failed to hit a home run since Aug. 14 when he connected for his 42nd round-tripper off Mel Parnell of the Red Sox.

Shawnee Hills Ass'n Gains Impetus

SIU: Lando Howard, regional director of the Illinois Public Aid commission; and Cong. Gray.

Senator Jones, father of the Shawnee Hills Recreation area idea who took it up with President Morris of SIU and got a favorable response from the outset, told the group the idea to promote the tourist industry in Illinois had spread farther than one would realize. He told of an editorial in the Alton Telegraph that praised the work that was started and urged all people of southern Illinois to get behind the movement.

He said that a few weeks ago when on the Northwestern University campus at Evanston, a professor told him he had heard of the work and asked of its progress.

Government Can Help
"I have hoped all along," he said, "that we will be able to make this a money-making proposition and I believe if we encourage the tourist business, we will have added significantly to our economy."

He said that the tourist industry was one thing that the state and federal government could help with financially.

"They can't build factories for you, but they can help us develop our resources and our roads leading to them," he declared.

He pointed out that the largest concentration of state parks in the state is located in southern Illinois but added that they were not as well developed as those farther north. Shawnee state park in Old Shawneetown is one, he said, that could be developed into a place where people would want to visit.

He spoke of the Ohio river and its possibilities, with its Cave-In-Rock and Fort Massac state parks, and hoped that in the near future boat rides up and down the Ohio could be given from the state parks so that people could see the scenic beauty from the water.

Mr. Putnam told of the importance of lakes and of his efforts to get more for southern Illinois.

Four-Lane Highway
Rep. Kerr said that since the organization was formed, Paducah, Ky., was sitting up and taking notice and was laying some claims to George Rogers Clark which have been confined to the Metropolis-Brookport area.

Cong. Gray told of the selling job that must be done and pointed out that the last session of congress passed an act that gives assistance to lake districts that plan to build lakes not to exceed 5,000 acres.

He also said that the new federal highway act would bring a new four-lane highway through the state, from Cairo to Chicago, and said it would pass not far from Goreville, the place of the meeting.

"This road will mean that Chicagoans can get down into our scenic area in about four hours time, which is significant," he stated. He added that contracts will begin being signed late this year and that southern Illinois will get in on some of the early road work.

Other speakers talked generally on the program.

All the six counties in the association—Saline, Gallatin, Hardin, Pope, Johnson and Massac—gave reports on the compilation of the histories and interesting spots in their respective counties, which also included places to stay and eating places. This information will be compiled into a brochure at Southern Illinois U. Louis Aaron gave the Saline county report and Horace Brown the Gallatin county report.

Rotarians Pledge To Give Blood To Bloodmobile

The Rotary club met Monday noon at the Masonic temple with club president Lowden Pankey presiding.

Entertainment for the meeting was supplied by Howell Dean and Pamela Colbert, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Colbert of Ledford. Pamela presented several pantomime numbers and Howell Dean tap danced.

A discussion was held on how the club could encourage members of other organizations to give blood to the bloodmobile, which will be in Harrisburg Friday, August 24. A large number of Rotarians have already pledged to give blood and the club hopes that other organizations will ask each eligible member of their club to give.

The club has for its use an advertising machine, which will be placed in a prominent place and will light up and display 30 different ads. This machine has been used before in Harrisburg to good advantage, to display the ads of local merchants.

Best highway route from New York City to San Francisco is 3,062 miles in length.

Fungus growths are second only to insects in destroying farm crops.

Maywood Wins Legion Regional

INDIANAPOLIS (U-P) — Maywood, Ill., won the American Legion junior baseball regional tournament Monday night with a 5-3 triumph over Cincinnati Bentley Post.

It was an upset for the Ohioans, who have won three national tournament titles and produced a number of professional players over the years, including Don Zimmer of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Maywood goes to Bloomington, Ill., to participate in the sectional tournament next week.

Maywood advanced to the title game with a 6-3 triumph over Terre Haute, Ind., in the afternoon, while Cincinnati beat Detroit 5-1. Cincinnati got five of its six hits in the eighth inning when a five-run splurge wiped out a 1-0 Detroit lead. Maywood broke a 3-3 tie against Terre Haute in the afternoon with a three-run seventh-inning festival during which pitcher Bobby Kehrt was nicked for three hits and tossed two wild pitches.

WHAT GIVES?—Casey Stengel threw up his hands and asked what was going on when the New York Yankees dropped into their longest losing streak of the year. Don Larsen waits to be relieved.

1,500 Gather For Drag Races At Lawrenceville

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ill. (U-P) — Fifteen-hundred of the nation's top hot-rodders began gathering today for the third annual world series of drag racing.

The races, the "Indianapolis 500" of the sport, will be held at Lawrenceville Municipal Airport Wednesday through Saturday.

Twenty-nine classes, with stock cars competing in separate events, are planned by the Automobile Timing Association of America which sponsors the races.

The non-profit ATAA is underwritten by a group of manufacturers. The hot-rodders will compete for a $1,000 scholarship given by one of the firms and other trophies and prizes.

Lloyd Scott, Long Beach, Calif., who piloted "Bustle Bomb" to a win last year, will be back to defend his title. From a standing start, his racer reached a speed of 151.007 miles an hour at the end of a quarter mile. It was powered by fore and aft engines.

Scott is readying "Bustle Bomb No. 2" for this year's races. It will have two Chevrolet V-8 engines.

Challenging the champ will be the Arnons brothers of Akron, Ohio, who won in 1954 with their "Green Monster," clocking 136.35 miles an hour at the quarter mile. Their 1956 entry will use two helicopter engines.

Although a drag race is an acceleration race begun from a standstill and run over an electronically timed course, elapsed times for the course will be announced this year for the first time.

A drag racing queen will be chosen Friday from local entrants.

Lyle Lee Attempts 500-Mile Record

LAKE OZARK, Mo. (U-P) — Lyle Lee, Galatia, Ill., an instructor at Missouri's Lake of the Ozarks resort area, will attempt today to set a new endurance record of 500 miles non-stop on water skis.

Lee last year set an endurance record of 400 miles non-stop, but his distance was topped recently by a St. Louis to Memphis endurance run of 436 miles.

Lee estimates it will take him 17 to 18 hours to complete the 500-mile run. He plans to start at 6 P. M. Tuesday and ski under a full moon until about noon Wednesday.

Raleigh, Sugar Creek, Pankey's Win in Kiwanis

By David Nelson

Raleigh downed the Pirates 12-11; Pankey's edged Gibbons, 9-8, and Sugar Creek defeated Jackson's, 13-11, in Kiwanis league play Monday.

Raleigh scored two runs in the last of the sixth to beat the Pirates, 12-11. Taylor pitched for the winners, giving up seven hits and walking 13, while he struck out four. For the winners at the plate Harris homered and tripled. L. Cochran tripled and doubled, Ramsey and J. Woolard singled twice each and G. Woolard and Farmer hit safely once each. Reed led the losing Pirates' attack with a homer and a single. Howton was the losing pitcher.

Gibbons rallied for four runs in the seventh but could not quite make it as Pankey's won, 9-8. Gibbons was on the hill for Pankey's and gave up four hits, walked three and struck out eight. For the losers, at bat, Wunderlich and Potter had three safeties each and Stunson hit safely twice. Klesborn, Vick, Griffith and Beal had Gibbons' four hits. Beal was the losing pitcher.

Sugar Creek scored 11 runs in two big innings, the fifth and sixth, as it downed Jackson's, 13-11. Karnes, the winning pitcher, allowed eight hits and walked five while striking out seven. Craver and Gee combined on the mound for the losers, giving up 10 hits, five walks and fanning six. Wiley, Fields and Banks led the winners' attack with two hits, and Heggin and C. Wollesen had two safe blows each for the losers.

Braves Extend Lead with 3-1 Victory Over Reds as Spahn Is Used in Relief

By United Press

There's an old Army saying—"never volunteer"—but the Milwaukee Braves can thank a guy who did, Warren Spahn, for their 2-1 game lead in the National League today.

Certainly no one expected Spahn to volunteer for bullpen duty against Cincinnati Monday night. The veteran left-hander had beaten the Redlegs, 3-1, only 24 hours before and had earned the customary three days rest.

Spahn wasn't needed during the first eight innings Monday night as Lew Burdette had the Redlegs eating out of his hand and appeared on his way to his seventh shutout of the season with a three-run lead.

But Cincinnati outfielder Frank Robinson opened the ninth with his 30th homer and Spahn, who had volunteered to go down to the bullpen, got up and started to throw. He stepped up the tempo when Bob Thurman walked. But then Burdette appeared to be out of the woods when Ted Kluszewski hit into a double play.

Preserves Burdette's Victory

When Wally Post followed with a single, Manager Fred Haney gave Spahn the nod and the 35-year old left-hander stroled in to get Ed Bailey on a grounder that ended the game and preserved Burdette's 3-1 triumph.

In bringing in Spahn in relief—which is only the second time Haney did so since he became manager—the little Milwaukee skipper actually was taking a leaf from the book of Cincinnati Manager Birdie Tebbets, who has been using his starters in relief a good part of the season.

All in all, it was quite a night for the Braves, who increased their league lead to 2-1 games over the idle second-place Dodgers and moved 3-1 games ahead of the third-place Redlegs.

Burdette, in registering his 16th victory against seven defeats, surpassed his previous best total in the majors. He gave up only five hits, the same number the Braves collected off loser Brooks Lawrence and Hersh Freeman.

Sweet Win for Adcock

The victory was also a particularly sweet one for Milwaukee first sacker Joe Adcock, who had exchanged hot words with Tebbets after last Saturday's game.

Adcock slammed his 30th homer over the center field wall in the sixth inning and as it turned out the blow served only as icing on Milwaukee's victory cake.

Lawrence, also a 16-game winner, started on the road to his seventh loss with two out in the third inning when Hank Aaron drilled a triple down the right field line and Eddie Mathews followed with his 28th homer over the right field screen.

The victory earned the Braves an even split in their four-game series with the Redlegs and sent them back home to Milwaukee today in high spirits for their day-night twin bill against the last-place Giants.

No other major league games were scheduled Monday night.
